This quick guide offers information on how to register and get started, goal setting, resources and ideas on how to stay motivated. If you feel that you are not in the place to be able to commit to registering for the program, the great news is that you can use the Lighten Up Lenoir website as a resource for information only. Then, when you are ready to register, you can at your convenience.

Getting Started

Lighten Up Lenoir provides two options to join: as an individual or as a 4-person team.

Self: If you feel that you are self-motivating and can be successful being solo on your health journey, you have the opportunity to register as an individual. Simply visit www.lightenuplenoir.org and click on the Register Now button in the left corner of the homepage banner. On the registration page, click on "Register Now" under the Individual Registration section. You will be asked a few simple questions in order to register your name and information.

Team: If you need someone to keep you accountable and motivated, ask your friends or family to consider signing up as a 4-person team. Visit www.lightenuplenoir.org and click on the Register Now button in the left corner of the homepage banner. On the registration page, click on "Register Your Team Now" under the Team Registration section. Please have your group choose someone to be your team champion to be sure that you have everyone's information included in the registration.

Goal Setting

In order to stay motivated, whether you are working in a team or individually, set achievable short term and long term goals. Goal setting encourages you to continue your journey for a healthier life.

Here are some examples of goals that you can consider:

Short Term

Start a food journal
Walk the dog three days a week
Pack a healthy lunch three days a week
Use smaller dishes for meals

Long Term

Complete the food journal for a year
Walk the dog at least one mile everyday
No fast food
Always use portion control methods.

The purpose behind goal setting is to make small decisions that ease you in to making lifestyle changes. By starting out slow, you are more likely to keep the goals you set for yourself and you will feel as if you have made a great accomplishment. An important factor to keep in mind: reward yourself! When you set your goals, set a date in which you want to reach that goal, and when you do, reward yourself!

Next Steps

Lighten Up Lenoir wants to make things simple so you can spend time doing the things that you love. Become familiar with the information that is located on the website, www.lightenuplenoir.org. Information on the website includes exercise videos, cooking videos, recipes, kids and family information, local events, and employer resources. This information is included because it is important to remember that getting healthy is not just about eating a healthy diet, but it also includes exercising, getting the family motivated to make healthier choices, and making a choice to just simply do better. When working towards goal setting and using the Lighten Up Lenoir resources, be sure to pick a plan that works for you. Watch and follow some of the exercise videos and find which one is the best fit. Try some of the recipes, and find what you like or dislike. If you find what you like and you see results, you are more likely to stay with the plan.

In order to track your progress, please submit your weight and fitness minutes on the Progress Tracker (the BLUE button in the upper left corner), and log-in by using your email address and PIN number that you used to register for the challenge.
